Hamilton Fights to Tie

RECORD CROWD GATHERS ON STEUBEN FIELD FOR GAME

GARNET AND BLUE COHORTS ROAR ENCOURAGEMENT - FINE WEATHER CONDITIONS

At 2:40 o'clock Union, led by their band, came on the field 350 strong, wearing white hats with maroon arm bands. Hamilton shortly followed them, singing "Union Comes This Way'..". The attendance is estimated at 900. Union kept up a continuous riot of noise from their position in the grandstand. Union let loose a feature song.

The time of periods was 15 minutes.

The Buff and Blue took the field at 2:50, going thru signal practice in pepy fashion. The Hamilton men in the bleachers gave some parodies. Union's eleven looked heavier than Hamilton's in practice. Hamilton came on the field singing, "We're Fighting For Victory Today.". The Buff and Blue arm bands made a brave showing. Both sides watched the teams eagerly as they went thru the preliminary work-outs, spirit keyed up to a high note.

The sun was shining brightly all morning, drying off the field considerably. Tho muddy from last night's rain, the field was not heavy under foot. A strong wind from the northwest helped the drying process.

The presence of scores of Alumni on the sidelines testified to the strength of interest in the great annual battle. Some of remote classes and many of the near were there to see a Hamilton victory. The Hamilton cheering more than rivalled Union's as the game started.

In the stands were the following Alumni:

Dunham, '79, Morrow, '80, Dough, '70, A. G. Hopkins, '87, H. W. During halves Hamilton marched out to the field to form an "H," and Union formed a "U," with their hats turned inside out disclosing a garnet lining. Many Union Alumni were present. The entire crowd removed their hats at the singing of the Hamilton and Union alma mater songs.

The Officials.

L. G. Saunders of Columbia blew the whistle to start the game, as referee. Geo. Beaver, West Point, was umpire, and P. H. Draper of Williams as Head Linesman.

"Dick" Drummond, of the famous 1900 team, has also been on hand.

The Hamilton team was in fit condition for the big battle, uninjured except for the loss of M. Gow at end, and minor bruises to Huntsman and Schwartz. Gow's knee was injured in the Rochester game. W. Gow took his place. The coaches pronounced the team ready for the great struggle following last practice yesterday.

The Coaches.

Assisting Head Coach C. W. P. ("Pete") Reynolds during the week were "Bug" Thompson, a veteran with a record reaching back to 1906; George H. Sicard, also of '06, a star end; and Drummond '12, and Roberts '13, men who have helped make Hamilton football history.

SUPREME GRIDIRON BATTLE OF 1915 RESULTS IN GRINDING 0-0 TIE SCORE

FINAL GAME FOUGHT IN STIRRING SPIRIT OF TIME-HONORED RIVALRY

With the odds against them, the wearers of the Buff and Blue turned back Union's attack and showed such gameness and versatility that the 0-0 score may be taken by the supporters of the Buff and Blue as a virtual victory. Union's team play at times exceeded Hamilton's, but the splendid work of Schwartz and Captain Pope were features. Rosencrans starred for Union.

The First Period.

In the first quarter Hamilton made one try for goal and except immediately after the kick off the ball was in Union's territory all the time.

Stoller acted as Union's captain. Union won the toss, choosing to receive at the south goal. At exactly 3:00 o'clock Schwartz kicked to the 25 yard line. Goff received and ran back 20 yards. Girling circled left end for 9 yards and was downed by Emeny. Huntsman get Rosencrans, but not before he made 2 yards for first down. Stoller went thru center for 2 yards. Girling made 15 yards before Jones hauled him down. Rosencrans made 6 yards more thru center.

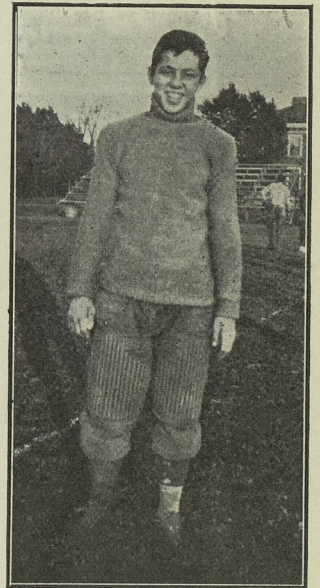

Successful Pass.

Union was penalized 15 yards for holding. Girling made 4 around left end. Stoller made 10 more when he was nailed by Jones. Paige intercepted forward pass from Goff. Pope drove thru center for 2 yards. Hamilton penalized 5 yards for off side. Pope made 8 thru center, downed by Stoller.

Schwartz punted to 8 yard line. Gow tackled Goff for no gain. Jones dropped Girling for no gain. Schwartz ran back Girling's punt 15 yards to the 60 yard line, when nailed by Gardner. Schwartz circled right end for 15 yards. Jones added 2 thru center. Pope could not gain. The ball was Hamilton's on Union's 18 yard line. Schwartz went thru right tackle, downed by Price for 1 yard gain. Paige tried a drop kick, but narrowly missed the goal. Union took the ball on the 20 yard line. Hamilton held, and Girling could make only a short gain on left end, Emeny tackling.

Girling punted to Hamilton's 37 yard line. Schwartz was downed in his tracks by Rosencrans. The first successful forward pass of the game was made by Schwartz to Jones for 15 yards. Schwartz swept around right end for 9 yards more, Rosencrans tackling. Hamilton penalized 15 yards for holding. Attempt at a pass failed. On the third down, with 16 to go, Schwartz went around left end for 20 yards.

Captain Pope, Star Halfback.

Pope made 8 thru center. Ball was on the 22 yard line. Time was twice taken out for Union. Schwartz could make no gain around right end. Hamilton penalized 15 yards for holding. Schwartz, in circling right end for 15 yards, was forced out of bounds by Price.

Pass by Paige was incomplete. Schwartz punted the ball beyond the goal line. Union took the ball on the 20 yard line. Girling made 2 yards, when forced out of bounds by

CHESS TOURNAMENT

Twelve men have joined the Chess Club and at the first meeting last week, it was decided to start a tournament immediately, in which all the members will compete. The three highest men will represent the club in all its regular matches. The list of entries will be posted in Chapel this week. President Saunders plans to schedule several matches among members of the Faculty, and later in the winter to have an intercollegiate match with some nearby college. Mr. Watson, of Clinton, who is an expert chess player, will come to the Hill soon and give the club some hints as to the finer points of the game.

FROSH-SOPH FOOTBALL

Saturday, November 30, Steuben Field, will see the last of this season's football games, when Sophs meet Frosh. The leading light of '18s team will be Schwartz, varsity fullback. 1919 have already elected elected McLean as their captain. The Sophs expect to win because of their greater number of practiced men, but the Frosh have ample material to put up a good fight.

EDITORIAL.

To the Victor Go the Laurels!

The great game—that to which students of both Hamilton and Union have strained eager eyes since the football tang appeared in the air—is done—a victory, defeat or tie—as this extra is issued.

Whatever the result, there will be some joy and some sorrow. A year from now we will be going thru the identical psychological stages of hope, fear, jubilation and grief, and in comparison with the length of tradition attaching to the Annual Game, a single battle is as a drop in the bucket.

Hamilton wanted victory, wanted it bad, and it had confidence in the team which Pete Reynolds sent out to the field. Union had admitted that they were not confident of victory, and there has been no large noise heard from down the valley during the past week. Coaches conceded that today's game would be the severest, most gruelling effort of seasons. Both teams, with their record of a single defeat, looked equal on paper; but Union was held to be ten points stronger than the Buff and Blue before the whistle.

But whether or not Hamilton hearts are sad or glad, this afternoon, and for any time, Union, the Campus is yours to use as a freely invited guest. We like your rivalry, and we know you have a good team. It is a great thing to have a "big game;" and while your teams have now and then been victorious, remember that the balance is with the Buff and Blue.

—The captains of some of the leading college elevens are: Harvard, Mahan; Yale, Wilson; Princeton, Glick; Cornell, Barrett; Army, Weyland; Colgate, Abell; Rutgers, Talman; N. Y. U. Somers; Union Jenkins; Hamilton Pope.

TO DECIDE BIG PENNANT TODAY

Hamilton and Union Tie for Honors for 1915, One Defeat Each.

On today's game hangs the football championship of the New York State Intercollegiate Athletic Union for 1915. Only three teams, Hamilton, St. Lawrence and Union are eligible for the pennant, as Hobart, Colgate and Rochester do not play all the teams in the league this year. St. Lawrence's defeat by Hamilton and Union puts her entirely out of the running and leaves the fight for the flag to Hamilton and Union.

Last year the Maroon had no difficulty in coping the bunting. Hamilton has not had the championship for several years and its winning would be the climax of one of the most successful seasons that the Buff and Blue team has gone thru in recent years.

Both Hamilton and Union have lost a single game. Hamilton has totalled 90 points to opponents 37.

Great College Dinner in Commons Hall

“Pete” Reynolds Receives Ovation From Student Body—Victory on Every Lip.

In the greatest College Dinner in years six Coaches stirred the smoke blown air of Commons into a battle roar last night. Students yelled and sang till throats could speak no word as “Pete” Reynolds, the great Coach who has brought Hamilton thru a successful season, rose to give his final word before the big game. He did not promise victory but he predicted one if his team fought as it was able.

Following him, “Bug” Thompson, '06, “Dick” Drummond, '01, Sicard, Roberts, '13, woke the echoes with exhilarating appeals for “Fight,” and their confidence for victory.

It was Roberts who brought the climax of the evening when he said that “Pete” Reynolds was the best Coach Hamilton had ever had. The students broke into uproarious applause, and rose as one man to give the long yell for the Coach. It was a splendid tribute.

Captain Pope, Ogilvie, M. Gow, W. Gow and Griffith concluded the speaking. A torch-light parade followed.

Psychology Wins Football Games

So Says Coach Dobie, Who Produces Winning Teams

Coach Gilmour Dobie, of the University of Washington, who has never had one of his teams defeated, has the following remarks to make about winning games. “Psychology is eight-tenths of football,” he declares, and this is why:

“I want my players during the practice days to be good, healthy, normal American boys but on the day of the game they must be something different. On the day of the game they must look upon the college as a patriot looks upon the flag during the period of his nation's peril. The college must stand for something worth while, and on the day of the game it must stand for the most precious thing in the world.

“I want my boys to go into a game firmly and thoroly believing that they stand a mighty good chance of being defeated, but that they also have a small fighting chance to win. And I want them worked up to such a mental pitch that they will fight for that chance with every ounce of energy in their bodies. Psychology, you see? That's all.

“Psychology stands for eight-tenths of football. No, I am not a Christian Scientist, but I do know that if the mental condition of my players is not above par while the game is on we are going to get licked. You can't have merely a normal mental condition, not if you expect to win. And that is why I say psychology is eight-tenths of football.”

—Norman J. Marsh, Jr., '14 has agreed to manage the Musical Clubs' New York concert. The concert will be held in the Hotel Astor or the Biltmore.

Jones, This Season's "Find."

Dusk drew its mantle across Steuben Field, ending the most stirring football contest that Hamilton has seen in many a year.

—Colgate fraternities have adopted new rushing regulations providing that no pledging shall be done until two weeks after the college opening, when all bids to the Freshmen are received by a 'Pan-Hellenic Council.' The bids are delivered to the Freshmen who make their choice by six o'clock on the following day. Thirty fraternities at Cornell have also adopted a new rule that none of their members shall do more than say "Hello" to any Freshman during the first semester and that all rushing shall be done in the second semester.
